Medical Consultant Contract Opportunity

The New Mexico Disability Determination Services (DDS) is currently looking for New Mexico licensed physicians, psychiatrists and/or psychologists who would like to contract with the DDS to review medical information and assist in making medical determinations on claimants who have applied for Social Security Disability benefits. Respondents must be licensed to practice Medicine/Psychiatry and/or Psychology in the State of New Mexico

The DDS provides for paid training on how to evaluate Social Security Disability claims, office space, collegial relationships with other medical and psychological consultants, flexibility of hours and minimal liability. This is a great opportunity to supplement current income.
